Our southern neighbor, the great country of Mexico, has so much to offer that one could easily spend a lifetime traveling there and still not see it all! Still, this film explores the highlights, including riding the famous Copper Canyon train from Chihuahua to Los Mochis, visiting with the Tarahumara Indians, touring Taxco and other towns built by silver mining, relaxing and enjoying Mexico's west coast beaches from Puerto Vallarta to Acapulco, petting 40-ton gray whales in the warm waters of the Baja Peninsula, and a lot more.

"Colorful Mexico!" is hosted by Fran and Brooke Reidelberger. Brooke Reidelberger, is the daughter of the late James W. Metcalf, a highly regarded travel film producer and lecturer. She was a magazine photographer and travel consultant before she joined forces with Fran, who has travelled with the Navy throughout Hong Kong, Japan, Okinawa and the Philippines. Together the Reidelbergers joined the travelogue profession in 1977, and they now travel the world offering exciting foreign experiences to their viewers through film.

This film is sponsored by the Wisconsin Union Performing Arts Committee and supported in part by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin. Other sponsors include the Onion and WSUM, 91.7 FM.
