Educational media producers Mary Lee and Sid Nolan will present their journey through the Polynesian islands, including the Hawaiian Archipelago, Fiji, Togo, the Cook Islands, and French Polynesia. This tropical adventure is the perfect escape from our long Wisconsin winter. Mary Lee and Sid Nolan have worked in educational media production for over 35 years, and between them have advanced degrees in History, Geography, Anthropology, Journalism, and Recreational Resource Development. They have traveled to every continent in the world except for Antarctica, and they are excited to bring the highlights of Polynesian culture to Madison.

This film is sponsored by the Wisconsin Union Performing Arts Committee.
