Four Seasons Theatre Cabaret: “Forty is the New Awesome” with UW-Madison Associate Professor Erica Halverson

With close ties to the University of Wisconsin-Madison and an influence in the Madison area theater world, Erica Halverson offers a special Four Seasons Theatre Cabaret show on Thursday, April 21, 2016 at 7:00 in the Fredric March Play Circle. Tickets for the show are $21 for the general public, $18 for Wisconsin Union Members and Non UW-Madison Students, $19.50 for UW-Madison Faculty and Staff, and $10 for UW-Madison Students. Tickets are available online and at the Campus Arts Ticketing Box Office, (608) 265-ARTS (2787).

Halverson performed most recently in the role of Fruma Sarah in Fiddler on the Roof and has also performed with the University Theatre as the witch in Into the Woods. She trained in theater at Northwestern University and is known for showing her shining talent in engaging performances. Her cabaret evening, “Forty is the New Awesome,” is a collection of songs in celebration of her 40 years of life. She will recall, through favorite songs, her experiences with heartbreak, family, challenges and triumphs.

Halverson is an Associate Professor in the UW School of Education and a Northwestern theatre grad.

This show is presented by the Wisconsin Union Theater’s Performing Arts Committee with Four Seasons Theatre. This performance was supported in part by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin and the National Endowment for the Arts. WORT 89.9 and Wisconsin Public Radio are media sponsors.
