Since the 1980s, Dianne Reeves has made a profound impact on the jazz music scene. A five-time Grammy Award winning jazz vocalist, Reeves grew up in a musical family. She toured with Harry Belafonte and sang at the closing ceremony of the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City. Reeves received her first Grammy Award in 2001 and has most recently won the Grammy for Best Jazz Vocal Performance on her 2015 album Beautiful Life. She is the only singer ever to receive this Grammy Award for three consecutive albums.

Commentator Scott Yanow calls Reeves “a logical successor to Dinah Washington and Carmen McRae” and “a superior interpreter of lyrics and a skilled scat singer.”

This performance is presented by the Wisconsin Union Theater’s Performing Arts Committee. Capital City HueWORT 89.9 and Wisconsin Public Radio are media sponsors.
