The Wisconsin Union Theater is delighted to announce the 25th annual Marcia Légère Student Play Festival. Performances will take place on March 10th, 11th, and 12th, 2016 in the Fredric March Play Circle Theatre at 7:30 pm. The shows are free and do not require tickets.

Marcia Légère, a successful theater professional, won the first Wisconsin Playwrights Contest while a UW-Madison student with a piece that was submitted by her professor without her knowledge. That success kickstarted her career as she saw her play being brought to life onstage. She went on and graduated with a degree in Comparative Literature and had a successful career in the documentary film and television world. She then returned to UW-Madison to find that the playwriting contest she had won many years earlier no longer existed, so she helped re-launch the competition with the help of the University of Wisconsin Foundation. The Marcia Légère Play Festival now occurs every year and gives students the opportunity to experience and produce original theater.

This year’s plays are Only a Good Guy by Jeff Casey, directed by Allie Frank, Super by Kerry Billings, directed by Ethan Schmidt, Love is in the Err by Isaac Ama, directed by Becca Haven, Shelter in Place by Laura Farrell-Wortman, directed by Mary Finedore, and Black Rose by Ashley Thomas, directed by Niccole Carner. The production team includes Sandy Peterson, Laura Farrell-Wortman, and Ashley Bellet. Come see the diverse talents of student actors, directors, technicians, and designers as they collaborate to bring each play to life.

This performance is presented by the Wisconsin Union Theater’s Performing Arts Committee. This performance is supported in part by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin and the National Endowment for the Arts.
