This British ensemble honors the music of the composers of the Baroque era as well as their own creativity. Their creative arrangements, flamboyant costumes and props, and exceptional musical style offer tribute to the artistry of the 17th and 18th centuries.

They have been compared in the press to the likes of Cirque du Soleil, Jackson Pollock, and the Rolling Stones and described as visionary, deeply imaginative, and outrageous with a ‘red-hot wicked sense of humour’ and a ‘rock-chamber concert approach to early music.’

Red Priest will be offering its Handel in the Wind program, with music from Handel, Bach and Telemann. See the full program here.
This band captures audiences from many different backgrounds, bringing rock lovers and Baroque music lovers together to experience a phenomenal performance.

This performance is presented by the Wisconsin Union Theater’s Performing Arts Committee. The Wisconsin Arts Board is a media sponsor.
