Explore the Secret Sides of Egypt With Karin Muller and the Wisconsin Union Theater Travel Adventure Film Series

There is more to Egypt than the mysterious Pyramids and complex hieroglyphics and who is more qualified to teach you about Egypt than NatGeo certified explorer Karin Muller? Muller’s film, titled Egypt’s Secret Side, will be shown on Monday and Tuesday, March 14 and 15, 2016 at 7:30 p.m. in The Marquee at Union South. There will also be a scrumptious buffet for an additional cost before the show, at 5:30, featuring foods from the region. Tickets for the show are $12 for the general public, $11 for Wisconsin Union Members and Non UW-Madison Students and $6 for UW-Madison Students. The buffet costs $18. Tickets for each showing and buffet are available online and at the Box Office, (608) 265-ARTS (2787).

Egypt’s Secret Side takes you on a dramatic and fast-paced journey through a side of Egypt that most Westerners never see. Karin Muller is an adventurous filmmaker and author and for three months, she traveled through Egypt living with Bedouin nomads, garbage collectors and Nile fishermen.

Muller has 25 years of experience and is known for her adventures in Vietnam on the Ho Chi Minh Trail, on the Inca Road from Ecuador to Chile and her year living in Japan searching for “wa,” the Japanese concept of harmony. With a sense of excitement and curiosity the Wisconsin Union Theater encourages you to explore a world far different than our own.

This film is presented by the Wisconsin Union Theater’s Performing Arts Committee.
